UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

JADIAN ANDERSON

CRIMINAL NO.

3 - 14 CR - 457 - K

PLEA AGREEMENT

Jadian Anderson, the defendant, Brady Wyatt, the defendant's attorney, and the United States of America (the government), agree as follows:

1. Rights of the Defendant: Anderson understands that she has the following rights:

- a. To grand jury indictment;
- b. to plead not guilty;
- c. to have a trial by jury;
- d. to have her guilt proven beyond a reasonable doubt;
- e. to confront and cross-examine witnesses and to call witnesses in her defense; and
- f. against compelled self-incrimination.

2. Waiver of Rights and Plea of Guilty: Anderson waives these rights and pleads guilty to the offense alleged in Count One of the information charging a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 4, Misprision of Felony. Anderson understands the nature and elements of the crime to which she is pleading guilty, and agrees that the factual resume she has signed is true and will be submitted as evidence.

3. Sentence: The maximum penalties the Court can impose for Count One include:

- a. imprisonment for a period of not more than 3 years;
- b. a fine not to exceed $250,000.00, or twice any pecuniary gain to Anderson or loss to the victim(s);
- c. a term of supervised release of not more than one year, which will follow any term of imprisonment. If Anderson violates the conditions of supervised release, she could be imprisoned for the entire term of supervised release;
- d. a mandatory special assessment of $100;
- e. restitution to victims or to the community, which Anderson agrees will include restitution arising from all relevant conduct, and not limited to that arising from the offense of conviction alone; and
- f. costs of incarceration and supervision.

4. Court's Sentencing Discretion and Role of the Guidelines: Anderson understands that the sentence in this case will be imposed by the Court after consideration of the United States Sentencing Guidelines. The guidelines are not binding on the Court, but are advisory only. Anderson has reviewed the guidelines with her attorney, but understands no one can predict with certainty the outcome of the Court's consideration of the guidelines in this case. Anderson understands that she will not be allowed to withdraw her plea if the applicable advisory guideline range is higher than expected, or if the Court departs from the applicable advisory guideline range. Anderson will not be allowed to withdraw her plea if her sentence is higher than expected. Anderson fully understands that the actual sentence imposed (so long as it is within the statutory maximum) is solely left to the discretion of the Court.

5. Mandatory special assessment: Anderson agrees to pay to the U.S. District Clerk the amount of $100.00, in satisfaction of the mandatory special assessment in this case.

6. Defendant's Agreement: Anderson shall give complete and truthful information and/or testimony concerning her participation in the offense of conviction. Upon demand, Anderson shall submit a personal financial statement under oath and submit to interviews by the Government and the U.S. Probation Office regarding her capacity to satisfy any fines or restitution. Anderson expressly authorizes the United States Attorney's Office to immediately obtain a credit report on her in order to evaluate her ability to satisfy any financial obligation imposed by the Court. Anderson fully understands that any financial obligation imposed by the court, including a restitution order and/or the implementation of a fine, is due and payable immediately. In the event the Court imposes a schedule for payment of restitution, Anderson agrees that such a schedule represents a minimum payment obligation and does not preclude the U.S. Attorney's Office from pursuing any other means by which to satisfy Anderson's full and immediately enforceable financial obligation. Anderson understands that she has a continuing obligation to pay in full as soon as possible any financial obligation imposed by the court.

7. Forfeiture: The defendant agrees not to contest, challenge, or appeal in any way the administrative or judicial (civil or criminal) forfeiture to the United States of any property noted as subject to forfeiture in the Indictment/Information and in any bills of particulars, or seized or restrained by law enforcement officers during the investigation(s) related to this criminal cause. The defendant consents to entry of any orders or declarations of forfeiture regarding all such property and waives any applicable statutes of limitation, and any requirements (including notice of forfeiture) set out in 19 U.S.C. §§ 1607-1609; 18 U.S.C. §§ 981, 983, and 985; the Code of Federal Regulations; and Rules 11, 32.2, and 43(a) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The defendant agrees to provide truthful information and evidence necessary for the government to forfeit such property. The defendant agrees to hold the government, its officers, agents, and employees harmless from any claims whatsoever in connection with the seizure, forfeiture, storage, or disposal of such property.

8. Government's Agreement: The Government will not bring any additional charges against Anderson based upon the conduct underlying and related to Anderson's plea of guilty. The Government will dismiss, after sentencing, any remaining charges in the pending Information. The Government will file a Supplement in this case, as is routinely done in every case, even though there may or may not be any additional terms. This agreement is limited to the United States Attorney's Office for the Northern District of Texas and does not bind any other federal, state, or local prosecuting authorities, nor does it prohibit any civil or administrative proceeding against Anderson or any property.

9. Violation of Agreement: Anderson understands that if she violates any provision of this agreement, or if her guilty plea is vacated or withdrawn, the Government will be free from any obligations of the agreement and free to prosecute Anderson and others for all offenses of which it has knowledge. In such event, Anderson waives any objections based upon delay in prosecution. If the plea is vacated or withdrawn for any reason other than a finding that it was involuntary, Anderson also waives objection to the use against her of any information or statements she has provided to the government, and any resulting leads.

10. Voluntary Plea: This plea of guilty is freely and voluntarily made and is not the result of force or threats, or of promises apart from those set forth in this plea agreement. There have been no guarantees or promises from anyone as to what sentence the Court will impose.

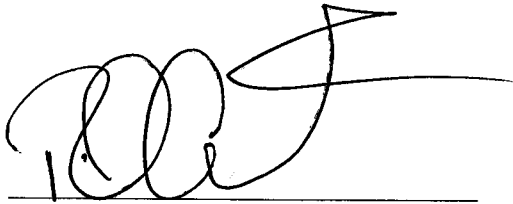

11. Waiver of Right to Appeal: Anderson waives her rights, conferred by 28 U.S.C. § 1291 and 18 U.S.C. § 3742, to appeal from her conviction and sentence. She further waives her right to contest her conviction and sentence in any collateral proceeding, including proceedings under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 and 28 U.S.C. § 2255. Anderson reserves the rights (a) to bring a direct appeal (i) of a sentence exceeding the statutory maximum punishment, or (ii) an arithmetic error at sentencing, (b) to challenge the voluntariness of her plea of guilty or this waiver, and (c) to bring a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel.

12. Representation of Counsel: Anderson has thoroughly reviewed all legal and factual aspects of this case with her lawyer and is fully satisfied with that lawyer's legal representation. Anderson has received from her lawyer explanations satisfactory to her concerning each paragraph of this plea agreement, each of her rights affected by this agreement, and the alternatives available to her other than entering into this agreement. Because she concedes that she is guilty, and after conferring with her lawyer, Anderson has concluded that it is in her best interest to enter into this plea agreement and all its terms, rather than to proceed to trial in this case.

13. Entirety of Agreement: This document is a complete statement of the parties' agreement and may not be modified unless the modification is in writing and signed by all parties.

Agreed to and signed this 28th day of November, 2014.
